

Industrial Therapy

What is a Bachelor of Occupational Therapy? •

Occupational therapy is a profession that provides primary health care.

- While pursuing a bachelor's degree in occupational therapy, students learn about human development, anatomy, and health care.

- A professional therapist daily Responsible for treating sick and injured patients through therapeutic application of measures.
- This sector is a fast growing sector and is expected to grow rapidly in the near future. • Bachelor of Occupational Therapy

Biology and Philosophy are the two main subjects taught by Bodu Arvar students.

Why Study a Bachelor in Occupational Therapy?

There are many advantages and reasons why one should pursue a bachelor's degree in occupational therapy. Understand them in detail. Job Opportunities: Take it

A Bachelor of Occupational Therapy helps people affected by any type of disability. 21 million in India according to a report

A large number of people are affected by these disorders and there are only 5000 occupational therapists in India. So this makes the job a priority. One of the biggest advantages of pursuing a bachelor's degree in science is that it offers a job opportunity with a comfortable salary and flexible working hours. Applicants are often employed as occupational therapists. The average salary for the job in India is Rs 409,000 per annum. Salary can go up to INR 10,00,000 per annum if the candidate has more than 10 years of experience. Apart from salary, medical insurance, dental treatment, pension benefits and many other perks are allowed to WadPod directors.

Who Should Pursue a Bachelor of Occupational Therapy? Applicants who have a strong interest in people with disabilities and who have critical thinking skills should take the course and who wish to pursue a career as an occupational therapist. m.

Applicants interested in entering the field of nursing should take the course. Applicants who wish to pursue a career in social welfare may pursue the course in Mental Health and Physically Handicapped. Bachelor of Occupational Therapy: Admission Process Admission to Bachelor of Occupational Therapy courses is based on merit list or entrance exam.

is done. Registration for undergraduate occupational therapy courses takes place in Tangali every year in May or June. However, this year the joining process has been postponed due to pandemic.

Bachelor of Occupational Therapy: Eligibility Criteria

Applicants seeking admission to the course must fulfill the following minimum qualifications.

- 10+2 from a recognized Board of Education Completed.
- Physics, Chemistry, Biology or Mathematics as core subjects at 10+2 level. • Minimum aggregate at Bachelor's level Markings 50% (45% for SC/ST/OBC Wade Board candidates).
- Their final 10+2 will be lost to Teorur Applicants are also eligible to apply for the scholarship on temporary basis.