

Arts Streams :

- Lessons:

- o Tamil and English subjects Kattat Yam. o

- History is described in written documents as the study of dead times. All events that occurred before written records are considered prehistoric.

- information about past events, memories, discoveries, collections, organizations, gifts, events are all placed . This is a descriptive lesson. This lesson will cover concepts like geography, geography, astronomy and practice its creation. o Commerce is a subject and one of the subjects of business education. This course is offered to students who represent the department of affairs. In this academic course, students enter the subject group, learn about those average sections and develop business-oriented knowledge. o Economics is that average

Learning about objects, completing them, and using objects belongs to a section of parker education. It is a core subject in commerce and also in science.

- o Also known as Political Science

- Subjects called for are Political Structures in the World, International Politics, Residential Science,

Learn about social justice, political events, biological communication. In the course of Political Science, students will learn about political systems, public participation, political platforms, and collaboration in the political world through political institutions. o Home Science is an economics subject. It helps to know the home remedies, know the resident doctor or resident relations, know the professional skills of the doctor, develop the ability to work and get a medicine.

- Different Groups:

- o Along with English and Tamil, the student can choose four subjects from the above menu. The inclusion of subjects refers to the group's presence in a particular school
It depends